

New Nominees for the 2026-2027 Houston Audubon Board of Directors

Diana Strassmann – Board Candidate

- Distinguished Professor in the Practice, Emerita, at Rice University with a PhD in Economics from Harvard
- Founder of the International Association for Feminist Economics and founding editor of the award-winning journal Feminist Economics
- Creator of Rice's Program in Poverty, Justice, and Human Capabilities, advancing interdisciplinary education
- Extensive board leadership, including service with Wiki Education Foundation (former chair), Inprint, and others
- Lifelong birder and long-time advocate for environmental stewardship, human rights, and open inquiry

Peter Tsan – Board Candidate

- Retired upstream energy accounting systems professional with leadership roles at EP Energy and Quorum
- Extensive experience managing complex accounting systems and major technology upgrades
- Long-time conservation volunteer contributing thousands of hours across Houston Audubon, the Arboretum, and Hermann Park
- Leads multiple Urban Bird Surveys and supports education, citizen science, and conservation programs
- Member of the Houston Audubon Board of Advisors, bringing deep commitment to local conservation and strong analytical expertise