

HOUSTON AUDUBON

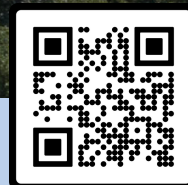

HIGH ISLAND

SANCTUARIES

FREE ADMISSION DAY

APRIL 1 FROM 8 AM-4:30 PM

Scan to learn more about High Island

DID YOU KNOW?

The High Island sanctuaries, owned and managed by Houston Audubon, are critical habitat for migrating birds. There have been nearly 400 species documented on our properties, including several species never before seen in the United States!

ACTIVITIES

- 9 am Guided Bird Walk at Smith Oaks Bird Sanctuary
- 11 am Flock Talk at The Rookery at Clay Bottom Pond
- All day - Stop by the brand new Morse Field Station across the street from Boy Scout Woods

LOCATION

Check in at visitor kiosks:

Smith Oaks:
2205 Old Mexico Rd.
High Island, TX 77623

Boy Scout Woods:
2088 5th St.
High Island, TX 77623

PLACES TO EXPLORE

- Kathrine G. McGovern Canopy Walkway
- Miles of trails and boardwalks
- The Rookery at Clay Bottom Pond, Smith Oaks
- The drip at Katrina's Corner, Smith Oaks
- Purkey's Pond at Boy Scout Woods
- Amazing wildlife viewing, and more!

HOUSTONAUDUBON.ORG